

Vermont Military, Family & Community Network (MFCN)

Four Corners of Vermont

We are seeking leaders of the faith-based community of Vermont to help our current Veterans and our returning Veterans and their families. Military Family Community Network (MFCN) along with the Vermont National Guard and Veterans Administration Chaplains' Office are sponsoring mini-conferences throughout Vermont to help educate our communities about the following topics:

Challenges Veterans face when returning home

Physical, psychological, and spiritual wounds of war

The Church's role to include but not limited to Outreach, creating a welcoming and safe environment

Please refer to the attached map of Vermont for upcoming mini conference dates and locations

*Resource Book: "Welcome Them Home, Help Them Heal"

For additional information on Four Corners of Vermont program and the mini conferences please contact:

Rev. James MacIntyre III, Vermont National Guard
802-399-6401 or james.macintyre@us.army.mil

-or-

Rev. Joseph O'Keeffe, Chief, Chaplain Service, Dept. of Veterans Affairs, White River Junction
802-295-9363 ext 5416 or joseph.okeeffe@va.gov